

Goldman Sachs & JBWere Superannuation Fund Departing Australia Superannuation Payments (DASP)

If you are a temporary resident and have been contributing to the Fund then when you leave Australia then you may be entitled to claim any benefit from the Fund.

Please be advised that if you are eligible to claim your benefit from the Fund that you start the process as soon as possible. Any benefits remaining after your Visa has been cancelled/expired for 6 months may be claimed by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Once a request has been received from the ATO we must legally transfer your benefit over to them.

When you are submitting documentation directly to the Fund in regards to your DASP application please make sure that all documents are labelled with the following:

- Goldman Sachs & JBWere Superannuation Fund
- Member Number (if known)

Items to note

- Applying for a DASP - To apply for your DASP benefit you will need to complete the online DASP application through the ATO's website - <https://applicant.tr.super.ato.gov.au/applicants/default.aspx?pid=1>
- In order to make the payment of your benefit as smooth as possible it is recommended that you leave your Australian Bank Account open as we will then be able to electronically transfer your benefit into your bank account. In order for that to happen please provide a signed and dated copy of the following details:
 - Title of Account (Account Holder Name)
 - Account Number
 - Bank Name
 - Bank Address
 - BSB Number
 - International Member Residential Address
- An original certified copy of your passport or alternate identification as evidence of your identity is required. Please refer to the attached Completing Proof of Identity notes for further information on correctly certifying your documentation. This documentation needs to be sent by mail to GPO Box 4303 Melbourne VIC 3001.
